GOVERNORS AWARD

REGIONAL PLAN ASSOCIATION for an unprecedented concept and unique use of the television medium in presenting Choices for '76—a series of 20th Century town meetings—broadcast on 18 stations in the tristate area on the same five weekends during the spring of 1973.

CITATIONS OF MERIT

- CHRIS BORGEN, a reporter whose flair and unbiased news coverage has inspired confidence and trust throughout the community. His courage in risking his life by acting as a communicator between police and criminals in a Manhattan bank robbery is an example of that trust.
- WNET for presenting VD HOTLINE—a program of invaluable community service in an area where it is difficult to get mature and knowledgeable counsel without embarrassment.
- OPEN CHANNEL for varied and dedicated community service. Its "Street Olympics" program, as an example, depicted New York at its happy best.
- ROBERT BLEYER for his vision in creatively expanding the local programming horizon by offering dramatic programs such as "The Beggars Opera" and "Shoot Anything With Hair That Moves" on TelePrompTer Manhattan Cable TV.
- WNYE-TV for presenting GREEN CHIMNEYS (The City: An Environmental Classroom)—a program that opens the world of nature and wild life to the children of the City.
- WPIX-TV for focusing vital attention on controversial community problems through their continuing on-the-air Editorials during the Awards year.
- COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM and DOYLE DANE BERNBACH in grateful recognition of their generous contributions to the Full Opportunity Committee in the training of minorities for technical areas of television production, and MR. JAY EISENSTAT for his untiring effort, and his inspiration to the students in the training program.
- GENERAL FOODS CORPORATION in recognition of their interest and support of local television programs in the New York area devoted to broad community interests.
