Interview Legendary Newsmen Marvin Scott on:
FAKE NEWS AND THE TRUTH BEHIND THE BIGGEST HEADLINES IN RECENT HISTORY

Over a career spanning more than 50 years, veteran journalist Marvin Scott has seen it all. From international headlines to local heroes, the eleven-time Emmy Award winner and member of the New York State Broadcasters Hall of Fame has covered the news with objectivity and integrity, bringing journalistic excellence to every level of reporting. Scott has interviewed six presidents and top Hollywood celebrities, visited the front lines of war in the Middle East and Asia, and witnessed the rise of America's space program—all in a day's work.

In fact, Scott's new book, As I Saw It: A Reporter's Intrepid Journey, reflects on the stories that have stuck with him personally over the years, and the people who gave them life — from political scandals to hauntings at Amityville, local tragedies, triumphs and absurdities find their place alongside accounts of crime, redemption, war and celebrity on a national scale.

Bringing a multi-dimensional lens to real news and journalistic integrity, in an amusing, engaging and provocative interview, the iconic Scott can discuss and expand upon:

- Fake news, its impact, and the state of journalism today
- Building the trust of viewers through his integrity and dedication to his craft
- The emotions that make up some of the biggest stories of our lifetime
- The most devastating, joyous & rewarding moments of his career
- His love and passion for news and photography
- The evolution of the news business over the last 50 years
- Who he deems as the most misunderstood celebrity/political figure
- Recalling experiences as a reporter on the front lines of war
