PALEYAFTERDARK

The Paley Center for Media Salutes Music

PALEYAFTERDARK

PRIVATE RECEPTIONS begin at 6:00 pm
EVENTS begin at 7:00 pm

The Paley Center Salutes Music

Where in LA can you be entertained by Frank, Ella, Fred, Barbra, and other icons on-screen while enjoying live performances by Bergman, Buffett, Strouse, and Brubeck? Add the opportunity to engage them in conversation at a private reception and a few surprise guests, and you've got the ingredients for a new and unique series of programs at the Paley Center that we're calling PALEYAFTERDARK.

The inaugural series, PALEYAFTERDARK Salutes Music, launches with an evening with composer Peter Buffett and special guest, Warren Buffett, who is coming to see if his investment in those piano lessons paid off.

Our other evenings will be filled with the music of Dave Brubeck, Alan and Marilyn Bergman, and Charles Strouse. Each magical night begins with an elegant reception with the artists, followed by the onstage performance and conversation.

I hope you will join us as we turn our lens to the art and artistry of these very talented people.

Peter Buffett in Concert and Conversation with special guest Warren Buffett, who wants to see if his investment in those piano lessons paid off

Friday, October 3, 2008

Multimedia musician Peter Buffett is an acclaimed composer for advertising (MTV spots), television documentaries (500 Nations), and theatrical films (Dances with Wolves). Peter will play, sing, and share exclusive videos of his work and philanthropic activities. Special guest Warren Buffett and Peter will attend the private rooftop reception with series subscribers preceding the concert.

"Nice 'n' Easy" The Lyrics of Alan and Marilyn Bergman

Monday, November 3, 2008

The Bergmans, Marilyn and Alan, are celebrating fifty years of a musical partnership (and a life one, too), which has produced some of the great love songs and has captured every major music award along the way. They will perform some of their songs for us, and a famous guest or two will also treat us to the special magic of a Bergman song. How they write together and live together are memories they will share with us, as we enjoy archival video of legends such as Streisand and Sinatra performing the Bergmans' work. A private reception will precede the concert.

"Put on a Happy Face" A Salute to Charles Strouse

featuring an exclusive performance
by a guest star vocalist

Monday, January 26, 2009

Join our tribute to the composer of a cavalcade of great Broadway hits, including Bye Bye Birdie, Golden Boy, Applause, Annie, and Rags as we celebrate his illustrious career and the Los Angeles debut of his latest musical triumph, Minsky's. Strouse and guests will join us for a rare evening of story and song. The program will be illuminated by archival footage of rare Strouse material from the Paley Center's collection and live musical performances. A private reception will precede the event.

Time Out at Fifty An Evening with Dave Brubeck

with special guests

Tuesday, April 7, 2009

Come join us in celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the most successful album in jazz, Time Out, and the virtuoso genius behind that masterpiece, featuring such classic original compositions as "Three To Get Ready," "Blue Rondo a la Turk," and "Take Five." This event will honor the historic release of this seminal jazz masterpiece and salute the groundbreaking musical visionary Dave Brubeck. This riveting multimedia journey through his great television appearances will include an intimate and exclusive live performance by the Brubeck Institute Jazz Quintet. Joining Dave will be another legendary jazz figure, to be announced. A private rooftop reception will precede this once-in-a-lifetime event.
