

1968-1969 — NEW YORK AREA AWARDS

(Thirteenth Annual)

SEPTEMBER 1, 1968 TO AUGUST 31, 1969

Presented April 29, 1970 New York (Sardi's Restaurant)

PROGRAMS

- GUESS WHO'S COMING TO GREAT NECK February 11, 1969 (WCBS-TV) Robert Markowitz, Producer
- LIKE IT IS (WABC-TV) Charles Hobson, Producer
- NEW VOICES IN THE WILDERNESS March 2, 1969 (WNBC-TV) Bernard Morris, Producer
- SPEAKING FREELY (WNBC-TV) Joseph Michaels, Producer
- THE LEARNING EXPERIENCE (WCBS-TV) Ralph Curtis, Producer
- AFRICAN STORYTELLING (Jambo!) May 26, 1969 (WYNE-TV) Robert Henson, Producer
- CRITIQUE (WNBDT) Stephen Rabin, Producer
- EYEWITNESS NEWS (WABC-TV) Robert Hoyt, Executive Producer; Arthur Browne, Alan Cohen, Larry Goodman, Ed Harris, Al Ittleson, Jack Walters, Producers
- HELLUVA TOWN (WNEW-TV) Shep Morgan, Producer
- PUERTO RICO II (Vamos A Latinoamerica) May 29, 1969 (WNYE-TV) Mina Korn, Producer
- TEN O'CLOCK NEWS (WNEW-TV) Vernon Hixon, Producer

INDIVIDUALS

- JOSEPH A. DENNIS Host of Inside Bedford Stuyvesant (WNEW-TV)

- ROBERT MARKOWITZ Writer of "Guess Who's Coming To Great Neck" February 11, 1969 (WCBS-TV)
- BERNARD MORRIS Writer of "New Voices In The Wilderness" March 2, 1969 (WNBC-TV)
- EDWIN NEWMAN Host-Interviewer of "Speaking Freely" (WNBC-TV)
- GIL NOBLE Moderator of "Like It Is" (WABC-TV)
MITCHELL KRAUSS Host-Commentator of "Newsfront" (WNBDT)

CITATIONS OF MERIT

WCBS-TV AND COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

For presenting a series of 108 half-hour programs featuring leading black educators, writers, artists and activists in a detailed examination of the Afro-American experience through BLACK HERITAGE: A HISTORY OF AFRO-AMERICANS.

WCBS-TV

For consistently presenting to the New York scene new and talented professionals in the entertainment field on the series CALLBACK!

WNBDT

For presenting an exciting concept in local broadcasting that portrays the many social, cultural and artistic aspects of the black community in the Metropolitan area through the series SOUL!