GOVERNORS AWARDS

THE BOWERY SAVINGS BANK

For making possible the presentation on WNET/Channel 13 of "The Silent Years," a unique and rewarding showcase reflecting the history of the silent motion picture.

JAMES F. MACANDREW

Director of Broadcasting for the New York City Board of Education and President and General Manager of WNYE-FM and WNYE-TV, for more than 34 years of leadership and outstanding accomplishment in the field of Educational Broadcasting.

SEYMOUR N. SIEGEL

For inaugurating the station of the City of New York — WNYC — perpetuating it and making it an important force within the community for the past 36 years.

WNYE-TV, CHANNEL 25

For providing the metropolitan area viewing public a full schedule of instructional television of the highest caliber.

CITATIONS OF MERIT

WCBS-TV

For an informative and action-directed editorial series on our fragile environment, thoughtfully prepared, persuasively structured and engagingly supplemented by "Pogo."

WNYC-TV

For the program series ALL ABOUT TV, offering a literate, courageous and penetrating self-analysis of the television medium.

WNYE-TV

For utilization of their story-telling program series for young children to display the seldom-seen culture and history of Viet Nam on the presentation Tales From Viet Nam (Stories From My House).

JOYCE TIMPANELLI McPHILLIPS

For her worthy work as a television teacher to the City's young in introducing them to fact and information within a compelling story-telling format, Stories From My House on WNYE-TV.

THE NEW JERSEY COMMUNITY ACTION TRAINING INSTITUTE

For its dramatic film "Not Me." This production, made for another medium, when telecast locally was an outstanding presentation effectively illuminating the reality and hazards of drug abuse.

THE PEPSI-COLA METROPOLITAN BOTTLING COMPANY, INC.

For making possible the presentation of Reflections Of The Black Experience, a diverse, contemplative and rewarding program dedicated to The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King.
